How to Complete an Arizona General Release

General Release of All Claims

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. A general release ends a dispute: one party gives up all claims about a specific matter, usually in exchange for payment. It is used for minor accidents, property damage, business disputes and private settlements.

1. Identify both parties
   Full names and addresses.
2. Describe the matter precisely
   The release covers only what you describe.
3. State the payment
   The amount or other consideration given.
4. Sign before a notary
   Notarization proves who signed. Bring a current photo ID.

Signing requirements: Signed by the releasor (and the releasee if required) before a notary.

After It's Signed

- A release is generally final. For injury claims, speak with an attorney before signing.
