How to Complete an Arizona Self-Proving Will Affidavit

Self-Proving Affidavit • A.R.S. § 14-2504(B)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. An Arizona will needs two witnesses. Adding this self-proving affidavit lets the court accept the will without contacting the witnesses later, which can save your family time and expense in probate. It can be signed when the will is signed or at any later date.

1. Attach it to the will
   Enter the testator's name and the date of the will.
2. Bring the testator and two witnesses together
   Ideally the same two people who witnessed the will. We can bring witnesses.
3. Everyone swears before a notary
   Each person needs a current government photo ID.
4. Store the original safely
   Keep it stapled to the original will.

Signing requirements: The testator and two adult witnesses sign and swear before a notary at the same time.

After It's Signed

- If you sign a new will, sign a new self-proving affidavit for it.
