How to Complete Your Colorado Quitclaim Deed

Quitclaim Deed (Colorado, C.R.S. 38-30-113)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. A quitclaim deed transfers whatever interest the grantor has in Colorado real estate, with no promises about title. It is often used between family members or to clear up title.

1. Fill in the parties (Page 1)
   Enter the grantor (current owner) and grantee (new owner). Colorado requires the grantee's legal address on the deed. Check joint tenants or tenants in common if more than one grantee; otherwise Colorado presumes tenants in common.
2. Describe the property (Page 2)
   Copy the full legal description exactly from the current deed, plus the street address and parcel number.
3. Sign before a notary (Page 3)
   Each grantor signs before the notary with a current, government-issued photo ID.

After It's Signed

- Record the original with the county clerk and recorder of the county where the property is located. A Real Property Transfer Declaration (Form TD-1000) must accompany deeds when the sale price is over $500.
- A deed form does not prove who owns the property or whether there are liens. For a sale or loan, a title company and title insurance are strongly recommended.
