How to Complete Your Florida Affidavit of Single Status

Affidavit of Single Status (Florida)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. An affidavit of single status is a sworn statement that you are not married. It is most often required to marry abroad, and the foreign country usually requires an apostille.

1. Fill in the form
   Enter your personal details and check your marital history. If divorced or widowed, enter how and when the last marriage ended.
2. Check the foreign requirements
   Some countries require specific wording, a translation, or a recent date. Ask the consulate or wedding planner before signing.
3. Sign under oath in front of a notary
   Do not sign ahead of time. The notary places you under oath and completes the jurat. Bring a current, government-issued photo ID such as a driver license, state ID, or passport.

After It's Signed

- Most countries require an apostille on this affidavit. First Choice can notarize it and obtain the apostille from the Florida Department of State.
- Many countries accept the affidavit only for a limited time after signing, often 3 to 6 months.
