How to Complete Your Georgia Child Travel Consent

Parental Travel Consent Letter

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR CONSENT.

About this form. A notarized travel consent shows border officers, airlines and foreign authorities that a child traveling without one or both parents has permission. U.S. Customs and Border Protection recommends one, and many countries and airlines require it, especially for international travel.

1. Parents and children
   Enter each parent or guardian and each child exactly as on their passports or IDs.
2. Traveling adult and trip
   Enter who the child travels with (or check unaccompanied), the destinations, dates and where the child will stay.
3. Sign before a notary
   Both parents should sign if possible; a parent who is not available can sign separately before a notary. Bring current photo IDs.
   Traveling soon? Our mobile notary can come to you, even on short notice.

Signing requirements: Signed by the parent(s) or guardian(s) before a notary public.

After It's Signed

- Give the original to the traveling adult with a copy of the child's birth certificate and any custody order. Keep a copy.
- Some countries require an apostille on travel consents. We can obtain one for you.
