How to Complete Your Michigan Affidavit of Heirship

Affidavit of Heirship (Michigan)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. An affidavit of heirship is a sworn statement of a deceased person's family history identifying the legal heirs. Title companies and institutions use it, often with a probate or small estate procedure.

1. Who signs
   Someone who knew the decedent and the family well, preferably a person who is not an heir. Title companies often want two such affiants.
2. Complete every item (Pages 1–2)
   Give full names, dates, and addresses. Write "None" where an item does not apply.
3. Swear before a notary (Page 3)
   Sign under oath before the notary with a current, government-issued photo ID.

After It's Signed

- Record the original with the Register of Deeds of the county where the property is located. if it relates to real estate.
- In Michigan, title companies often require a probate proceeding, a recorded affidavit, or other proof before heirs can sell inherited real estate. Ask a title company or attorney what is required.
