How to Complete Your Nevada Quitclaim Deed

Transferring Whatever Interest You Have — With No Title Promises

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR NEVADA QUITCLAIM DEED.

About this form. A quitclaim deed transfers whatever interest the grantor has — if any — with no promises about title. It is common between family members, spouses, after divorce, or to clear up title. It is formatted for Nevada recording.

1. Copy details from the current deed
   Use the grantor names exactly as on the current deed, the parcel number (APN), and the legal description word for word.
2. Fill in the recording box
   Enter the APN, the transfer tax amount (or $0 if exempt), who receives the recorded deed, and who receives tax statements.
3. Choose how the grantee will hold title
   Write the vesting, such as “joint tenants with right of survivorship” or “community property with right of survivorship.”
4. Complete the State Declaration of Value
   Nevada requires a Declaration of Value form (from the County Recorder or Nevada Department of Taxation) with every deed, showing the transfer tax or the exemption number under NRS 375.090.
5. Sign in front of a Nevada notary
   Every grantor signs. Do not sign ahead of time. Bring a current photo ID. Our Nevada-commissioned notaries come to you.
6. Record the deed
   Record the notarized deed with the Declaration of Value at the County Recorder where the property is located, and pay recording fees and any transfer tax.

Good to Know

- Recorded Nevada documents must be black and white with 1-inch margins and a blank 3×3 inch box at the top right; print this form as-is on white letter paper, one side only.
- Transferring property with a loan on it? Check with your lender first. A deed does not remove anyone from the mortgage.
- Title questions or a sale with money involved? Consider a title company or attorney.
