How to Complete a Nevada Resignation of Trustee

Stepping Down as Trustee of a Nevada Trust

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR NEVADA RESIGNATION OF TRUSTEE.

About this form. A trustee who wants to step down should resign in writing, following the method the trust document provides (or with the required consents or a court order). This form records the resignation so the successor trustee, banks, and title companies can rely on it.

1. Read your trust's resignation section
   Note the article or section number.
2. Fill in the trust and effective date
   Use the trust's exact name and date.
3. Mark the method
   Get the consent signature or attach beneficiary consents or a court order as needed.
4. Name the successor
   The successor signs an Acceptance of Trusteeship.
5. Sign before a Nevada notary
   Do not sign ahead of time. Bring a current government-issued photo ID. Our Nevada-commissioned notaries come to you.
6. Hand over records
   Deliver trust property and records to the successor trustee.

Good to Know

- Banks usually want a new Certification of Trust from the successor.
- If the trust owns real estate, a recorded document may be needed.
- No successor named? A court may need to appoint one.
