How to Revoke a Nevada Living Trust

Revocation of a Revocable Trust

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR NEVADA REVOCATION OF LIVING TRUST.

About this form. The settlor of a revocable trust can usually cancel it, following the method in the trust document or by a signed writing delivered to the trustee. Revoking a trust has major estate-planning effects, so talk to an attorney first.

1. Read your trust's revocation section
   If it makes its own method exclusive, follow it.
2. Fill in the trust details
   Exact name, date, settlors, trustees.
3. Choose method and effective date
   Mark the method and when it takes effect.
4. Plan for the property
   Deeds and account changes are needed to move assets out of the trust.
5. Sign before a Nevada notary
   Do not sign ahead of time. Bring a current government-issued photo ID. Our Nevada-commissioned notaries come to you.
6. Deliver it to the trustee
   Get the trustee's receipt.

Good to Know

- Joint trusts can have special community property rules in Nevada. Ask an attorney.
- Want to change rather than cancel? Consider an amendment.
- Gavrilov & Brooks can help.
