How to Revoke a New York Power of Attorney

Revocation of Power of Attorney — New York General Obligations Law § 5-1511

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR FORM.

About this form. Use this form to cancel a New York power of attorney, or to remove one agent. Under New York law, a revocation takes effect as to your agent only when your agent receives it, and as to a bank or other third party only when it has actual notice. You must be of sound mind to revoke.

1. Identify the power of attorney (Section 2)
   Enter the date it was signed, the type of form and the agents named. Attach a copy of it if you have one.

2. Choose what to revoke
   Initial one choice: the whole power of attorney, or only certain agents. You can also revoke other prior powers of attorney.

3. Recording information (Section 3)
   If the power of attorney was recorded for real estate, enter where and when. The revocation must be recorded in that same office.

4. Sign before a notary (Section 5)
   Do not sign ahead of time. Notarization is needed to record the revocation and gives banks proof that it is genuine. Bring a current government-issued photo ID.

5. Deliver it (Sections 4 and 6)
   Deliver a copy to each agent in person, or by mail, courier, email or fax, and to every bank or institution that has a copy of the power of attorney. Log each delivery in Section 6. Certified mail with a return receipt gives you proof.

After It's Signed and Notarized

- Keep the notarized original and your delivery record.
- If the power of attorney was recorded, record this revocation with the same County Clerk (or the NYC City Register through ACRIS).
- Signing a new power of attorney does not automatically cancel an old one in New York. Revoke the old one in writing if you no longer want it.
- If you want a new agent, sign a new New York Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney, available on our website.
