How to Complete Your North Carolina Non-Warranty Deed

Non-Warranty Deed (North Carolina)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. A North Carolina non-warranty (quitclaim) deed transfers whatever interest the grantor has, with no warranty of title. It is often used between family members or to clear title.

1. Prepared by and mail to (top of Page 1)
   Enter who prepared the document and where the Register of Deeds should mail it. Leave the space above the dotted line blank.
2. Parties and property (Pages 1–2)
   Enter the grantor and grantee, and copy the legal description and the Book/Page title reference exactly from the current deed. A married grantor's spouse should usually sign too.
3. Sign before a notary (Page 3)
   Each grantor signs before the notary with a current, government-issued photo ID.

After It's Signed

- Record the original with the Register of Deeds of the county where the property is located.
- North Carolina excise tax ($1 per $500 of consideration) is paid when a deed is recorded.
- In North Carolina, real estate closings are handled by attorneys. A deed form does not replace a title search; talk to a closing attorney for a sale or loan.
