How to Complete Your North Carolina Revocation of Health Care Directive

Revocation of Health Care Power of Attorney and Living Will (North Carolina)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. Use this form to cancel a North Carolina health care directive, a durable power of attorney for health care, or a mental health advance directive.

1. Identify the documents (Page 1)
   Check each document you are revoking and enter its date and agent names.
2. Sign before a notary (Page 2)
   Under North Carolina law, you may revoke these documents at any time while competent, in writing or by clearly communicating your intent to your agent, doctor, or health care provider. A notarized revocation gives clear proof of the date and your identity. Bring a current, government-issued photo ID.
3. Notify your doctors and agents (Page 2)
   Give copies to your doctor, hospital, and each agent named, and record each notice.

After It's Signed

- Ask them to destroy or return their copies of the revoked documents.
- To give new instructions, sign a new North Carolina Health Care Power of Attorney or Living Will. We have free forms. If the original was filed with the Secretary of State's registry, file the revocation too.
