How to Complete Your Utah Delegation of Parental Powers

Power of Attorney Delegating Parental Powers (Utah Code 75-5-103)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. Utah lets a parent or guardian delegate parental powers, such as consenting to medical care and enrolling a child in school, to another adult for up to six months, for example a relative caring for the child.

1. Fill in the child and agent (Page 1)
   List each child and the adult who will care for them, and set start and end dates no more than six months apart.
2. Sign before a notary (Page 2)
   Utah requires a power of attorney to be signed before a notary. Bring a current, government-issued photo ID for each parent signing.

After It's Signed

- Give the original to the agent and copies to the school and doctors. For a longer period, a new power of attorney or a court guardianship may be needed.
- For a parent moving out of state who needs a child to stay enrolled in a Utah school, ask the school district about its residency power of attorney requirements.
