How to Complete Your Utah Quitclaim Deed

Quitclaim Deed (Utah Code 57-1-13)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. A Utah quitclaim deed transfers whatever interest the grantor has, with no warranty of title. It is often used between family members or to clear up title.

1. Fill in the top boxes (Page 1)
   Enter where to mail the recorded deed and the grantee's address for tax notices (Utah requires the grantee's mailing address), plus the tax parcel number.
2. Parties and property (Pages 1–2)
   Enter the grantor and grantee, and copy the full legal description exactly from the current deed.
3. Sign before a notary (Page 3)
   Each grantor signs before the notary with a current, government-issued photo ID. Printed names appear under each signature, as Utah recorders require.

After It's Signed

- Record the original with the county recorder of the county where the property is located.
- If water rights or water shares are conveyed with the property, Utah requires a Water Rights Addendum to be filed with the deed.
- These form pages follow strict recording standards (wide top margin, 10-point black type) so county recorders readily accept them.
- A deed form does not prove who owns the property or whether there are liens. For a sale or loan, a title company and title insurance are strongly recommended.
