How to Complete Your Washington General Release

General Release of All Claims

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. A general release ends a dispute: one party accepts payment or other value and gives up all claims about a specific matter, such as property damage or a private sale.

1. Describe the matter (Page 1)
   Be specific about the incident or transaction being settled and what is being paid.
2. Read carefully
   A release usually cannot be undone. Injury claims involve special rules, so speak with an attorney first.
3. Sign in front of a notary
   Do not sign ahead of time. Bring a current, government-issued photo ID for each person signing.

After It's Signed

- Each party keeps a signed copy. Do not sign until the agreed payment terms are clear.
