How to Complete Your Washington Quitclaim Deed

Quitclaim Deed (RCW 64.04.050)

INSTRUCTIONS — KEEP FOR YOUR RECORDS. DO NOT ATTACH THIS PAGE TO YOUR DOCUMENT.

About this form. A Washington quitclaim deed (RCW 64.04.050) transfers whatever interest the grantor has, with no warranty of title. It is often used between family members or to clear up title.

1. Return address (top of Page 1)
   Enter where the recorded document should be mailed. Washington recorders allow only the return address in the top 3 inches of the first page.
2. Indexing block (Page 1)
   Washington requires the grantor and grantee names, an abbreviated legal description, the assessor's parcel number, and any reference numbers on the first page.
3. Parties and property (Pages 1–2)
   Enter the grantor, consideration, grantee, and the full legal description exactly as on the current deed.
4. Sign before a notary (Page 3)
   Each grantor signs before the notary with a current, government-issued photo ID.

After It's Signed

- Record the original with the county auditor (recording office) of the county where the property is located.
- Deeds must be accompanied by a Real Estate Excise Tax Affidavit filed with the county treasurer, even if the transfer is exempt.
- A deed form does not prove who owns the property or whether there are liens. For a sale or loan, a title company and title insurance are strongly recommended.
